LINDA'S LINES

Thanks to all of you who helped to make Vacation Bible School a success. Thanks for your devotion and commitment to sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ with children and youth. Your ministry, no matter what role you played in VBS, was greatly appreciated! We look forward to the harvest that will continue to come through these efforts. If you are willing to help in any area with children and youth this summer, please let us know as soon as possible.

As I write this article, Renee Bryant, Norma Routt, and I are preparing to leave Anaheim, California today where we have been attending the Southern Baptist Convention. We will share the convention report with you during Wednesday Worship on June 29, 6:30 p.m. The best part of the trip for us has been the witnessing opportunities, seeing friends, and participating in worship last night at Saddleback Church. What a refreshing worship experience at Saddleback!

Also, as I write this article we have several of our folks who are on mission this week or who are preparing to leave for a mission trip:

Deborah Lawrence is with the Gospel Lights Missions working with the Hopi Tribe of the Navajos Indians. They are at the Peace Academic Center in Kykotsmovi Village in Arizona.

Patrick Routt (Donnie and Norma's grandson who helped us in VBS) is in Oneida, Tennessee with his church working in construction and evangelism.

Melissa Logsdon-Young and Hydiatu Konneh are in Campbellsville, Kentucky helping to lead Kids Changers taking place at Lowell Avenue Baptist Church. Children and their leaders are sharing the love of Christ through our state through this Woman's Missionary Union program.

Holland Kendall is with the Rose-Woods Team serving in Honduras in the village of Opimuca, south of Tegucigalpa. He will be working in optical ministry helping to provide sight to the many people who will now be able to read the Word of God.

Thanks for praying for all of these. We look forward to hearing of their experiences.

Please continue to pray for our Personnel Committee (Chairperson Susan Hudgins, Dana Adams, Martha Blansette, Sam Frizzell, Danny Hass, and Mary Kleber) as the search continues for the right people God has for our vacant staff positions. Pray for wisdom and discernment for these folks. We are very grateful for those who are filling in during this transitional/interim period.

What is God calling you to do in the life of our church? Paul reminds us in I Corinthians 12:18: "God has arranged the parts in the body, every one of them, just as He wanted them to be." That means that we all have specific functions in the body of Christ. Are you fulfilling what God would have you
